

Mission/Purpose:

Yearbook Club is open to all self-motivated students who are interested in photography, layouts, and journalism. Students should have basic computer knowledge and be willing to work on pages before and after school on a consistent basis.

Faculty Advisor:

Mr. Jamie Gilmore, Library Media Specialist

Activities:

Activities might include but are not limited to taking pictures, scanning photos, indexing photos, creating page layouts, fundraising, and creating feature stories. Members will be required to meet during and after school on a regular basis in order to meet deadlines.

By-laws:

1. Members must attend meetings on a regular basis, and actively participate in all activities.
2. Members must work together in a cooperative manner to meet deadlines.
3. Members will elect officers through voting with ballots. The positions of officers will be open to anyone in club.
4. Any additions or changes to the by-laws will be open to discussion and voted on by all members.
